Dear Mr. Hill:

Thank you for asking CIA Director William J. Casey to speak at the International Affairs Organization meeting at the University of Northern Iowa.

Unfortunately due to the press of official engagements, Mr. Casey will be unable to accept your kind invitation. Since you mentioned in your letter that a colleague would be acceptable, we may be able to send a representative the end of February. We will contact you in early January to make any arrangements.

Thank you for your interest and support. We look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely, /

 George V. Lauder
 Director, Public Affairs

Dear Mr. Casey;

The International Affairs Organization of the University of Northern Iowa would like to invite you to speak to a campus wide audience here at UNI. We have had speakers from the CIA in the past and we are very pleased with the agency's past participation in speaking engagements here at UNI.

I believe that the university student really is interested in world affairs, and one of IAO's main goals is to challenge the student to learn more and ask questions. A lot of people don't understand what the U.S. is trying to accomplish in foreign affairs, and I believe that getting these speakers on our campus can help them to understand. IAO is a non-profit organization, recognized as an official organization by the University of Northern Iowa Student Association (UNISA), and funded by them.

We have had good years in the past, and I am hoping to make this year a success also. Please contact me as soon as possible, if you or one of your colleagues are able to attend. I know that I, as well as many others, would be very interested in attending a speaking engagement by you. Thankyou.

Sincerely,
